Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be Your name,
Your Kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread as our debts,
as we also have our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the Kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture for the Message: Matthew 4:17-25

17 From then on, Jesus began to preach, "Turn from your sins and turn to God, because the Kingdom of Heaven is near." 18 One day as Jesus was walking along the shore beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers - Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew - fishing with a net, for they were commercial fishermen. 19 Jesus called out to them, "Come, be my disciples, and I will show you how to fish for people!" 20 And they left their nets at once and went with him. 21 A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, mending their nets. And he called them to come, too. 22 They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind. 23 Jesus traveled throughout Galilee teaching in the synagogues, preaching everywhere the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed people who had every kind of sickness and disease. 24 News about him spread far beyond the borders of Galilee so that the sick were soon coming to be healed from as far away as Syria. And whatever their illness and pain, or if they were possessed by demons, or were epileptics, or were paralyzed - he healed them all. 25 Large crowds followed him wherever he went - people from Galilee, the Ten Towns, Jerusalem, from all over Judea, and from east of the Jordan River.

Leadership Summit "Whatever It Takes"

April 24-25, 2009

"Whatever It Takes" is an opportunity for other United Methodist Churches to worship and learn with us. At the BMZ Leadership Summit, we will share ideas and stories from our church's faith journey. Remember, there is nothing more important than for individuals to get into a partnership/relationship with Jesus Christ. That is why we here at Boscobel/Mt. Zion United Methodist Churches do what we do...

Carpenter's Tools International

coming to Boscobel UMC

March 29 @ 4:00pm

Everyone is invited to this concert of music. A free will offering will be taken. On site auditions will be offered to anyone wishing to travel with them.

Information below was taken from their website www.carpenterstools.org. Check out their website for more info. They offer full time and part time ministry opportunities.

Each August, CTI trains and mobilizes two "full-time" ministry teams which travel the US and abroad through May of the following year. These teams perform in churches, colleges, schools, prisons and other venues, using the uniquely powerful and communicative medium of music to encourage the church, challenge Christians to loving action in response to Christ's call to "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19), and to share the hope of Christ with those who don't know Him. We draw our inspiration, in part, from Acts 14:21 and 14:22, which say: "They preached the good news in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned... strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to their faith."
